

Presentations from SECURE at ESERA:

1. Presentation in Session G, 5 Sept. , 9- 11 am (4th), A111 by Jurij Bajc (Univ. Ljubljana, Slovenia): The MST curricula in teachers' and learners' perceptions as an illustration of the SECURE project outcomes.
2. Presentation in Session G, 5 Sept. , 9-11 am (2nd), EB107 by Göran Nordström (Högskolan i Gävle, Sweden): MST education in Swedish preschool.
3. Poster in Session H, 5 Sept. 11:30-13:00 in room E007: Jessie Best (TUD, Germany): The EU project SECURE (Science Education Curriculum Research) in Germany (Saxony)
4. Poster in Session H, 5 Sept. 11:30-13:00 in room E009: Barbara Rovšek (ULJ, Slovenia): The SECURE project- Slovenia as an example of national results
5. Symposium: Session J, 6 sept., 9-11 am, A110
 - Intended, implemented and attained MST curricula across Europe: What can research tell us?
Dagmara Sokołowska (UJK, Poland)
 - Mapping the curriculum for mathematics, science and technology education across Europe
Wout Ottevanger (SLO, Netherlands)
 - Perceptions of teachers and learners about the mathematics, science and technology curricula in two European countries
Veronika Rechberger (UGZ, Austria)
 - Questioning MST of curriculum in action at eleven year olds in Italy and Poland
Stefano Vercellati (UUD, Italy)

WWW.SECURE-PROJECT.EU

Se SECURE SIS-CT-2010-266640 – Science Education Curriculum Research

This project has received funding from the European Union's Seventh Framework Programme.

